25. S. O. 255 B is an unenfranchised blacksmith service inam in the accounts and is in the enjoyment of Kyruplappa, Nonnur Trappa, Nonnur Parasappa and Maillesappa. It is not definitely known whether the assessment or the land or both constitute the Inam. The share of each of the enjoyers in the land is as follows. Kyruplappa 1/3 share, Nonnur Trappa 1/6 share, Nonnur Parasappa 1/6 share, and Maillesappa 1/3 share.

The village officers and the District have valued this land at Rs. 70/- per acre. The Special Deputy Tahsildar who inspected the land fixed its value at Rs. 70/-. I accept this valuation and award compensation for the universal interest in the land at Rs. 70/- per acre with 15 per cent solatium ^{there} on the ~~valuation~~ which will be divided among the four enjoyers according to their shares in the land and paid to them as they are competent to contract with the Government. Revised Title deed was issued in the name of the President, Taluk Board in 1894 with the condition that a water tank should be constructed in the 7th mile on the Siruguppa Road and a water bundal there and also at the 2nd mile on the said road. The land is now under the control of the President, District Board. As this is a charitable inam the compensation of universal interest in the land will be paid for in cash and as the President District Board is not competent to alienate the land the compensation awarded will be tendered for deposit in the Civil Court. As regards the Melavaras interest in the land basis deduction proposals will be submitted to the Collector separately. The Village Officers and the Special Deputy Tahsildar who have inspected the land fix its value at Rs. 50/- per acre which I accept. Compensation for the Melavaras interest in the land at Rs. 50/- per acre with 15 per cent solatium thereon will be awarded.
